

I urge you to keep the airwaves as free and diverse as possible. Don't let the big corporations monopolize the airwaves. We need open, free and diverse opinions and objective information to continue to maintain our democracy.